FIRST INCARNATION

A PERFORMANCE PIECE BY SEAN ROGG WITH IMOGEN KNIGHT

Sean Rogg follows his extraordinary film WOOD about house burning in Sweden, first seen at The Wapping Project in 2006 with his equally provocative WATER first incarnation.

Take the Power Station's Boiler House, a sound scape, a film and 1000 different bottles of water.

"Would you like to taste a water?" and so Rogg begins the world's largest water tasting.

A piece for a maximum of 10 people at a time:

Water is selected.

Rogg's assistant approaches.

Silently.....

The performance is repeated for each visitor for 10 days.

The waters dwindle.

The show dies away.
